See the flowers swinging in the summer breeze

Man, I wish you were here with me

With me

Didn't think you'd follow me all this way

But you did, even when the sky was grey

So grey

I wish...

Didn't think (you'd)...

But it's too late, too late now

But it's too late, too late now

Woah!

It's too...

I can feel you na na na na now

I can breathe you na na na na now

It's too late to run away from me

I can feel you na na na na now

I can breathe you na na na na now

It's too late to run away from me

I can feel...

I can breathe...

It's too late to...

Da da da

Woah, oh!

Have you seen the burdened rain

Trickle down your windowpane?

So plain

And when I see your beautiful smile

Oh it drives me wild

Yeah, so wild

Have you seen...?

Trickle down...

When I see...

It drives me...
