Pre-Reading: Predicting

Look at the title and the picture; what do you think this is going to be about? What and/or who might be featured? Where could they be? Why?

1-2 Main ideas or Issues

List the main ideas or issues you can recall after reading through the text once or twice. Stick to the general or most important points.

1-3 Supporting Information/Examples

List supporting information for each of (or just 1-2 of) the main ideas or opinions:

- Specific reasons
- Specific arguments or opinions
- Facts or statistics
- Examples or anecdotes
- Non-verbal information such as photographs, models, diagrams, scenes or evidence

1-1 Scan for Context and Topic

What type of text is it? What is it generally about? Is there a situation, announcement or issue?

1-4 Conventions of Informational Text

Are there visual materials to go with the text? Any graphic information? Numerical information? Is there evidence of the 'impersonal' tone? What register is used (formal/informal, etc.)?

1-5 Structure and Discourse Features

Look for how the writing is sequenced and how linking words are used. Are imperatives and conditionals used? Are there any dot points or numbered instructions?

1-6 My Personal Opinion

Express your own opinion in response to the text and information/issues. What do you think, believe, prefer, (not) agree with, like/dislike, etc.?
