

A Write an e-mail to introduce yourself to a new e-pal.

Ideas for writing:

Name?

Age?

From?

Family?

Favourite books/
movies/sports?

School?

School subjects?

Neighbourhood?

There are...?

People are...?

E Writing Skill: Writing e-mails to new friends.

E-mail is a great way to introduce yourself to people in other countries. Your e-mail should have a friendly greeting (start) and goodbye (end). It can use paragraphs to show different kinds of information about you.

F Writing Preparation: Make three questions to go with each main idea:

Personal/ Family	Q1: _____ Q2: _____ Q3: _____
Favourite things	Q1: _____ Q2: _____ Q3: _____
School stuff	Q1: _____ Q2: _____ Q3: _____
Neighbour- hood	Q1: _____ Q2: _____ Q3: _____

G Writing Tip: Information Questions

-  To ask for information, try using questions that start with What / Where / Who / How
-  Look at the example e-mail in (C). What questions are answered there?

I Classroom Connection 1: Ask your questions from (F) to a classmate and write their answers below.

Personal/Family

Q1: _____
Q2: _____
Q3: _____

Favourite things

Q1: _____
Q2: _____
Q3: _____

School
stuff

Q1: _____
Q2: _____
Q3: _____

Neighbourhood

Q1: _____
Q2: _____
Q3: _____

J Choose one of the main ideas from (I) and write it out as a paragraph.

K Classroom Connection 2: Review what you wrote in (H). Then send it to a classmate as a real e-mail!